“Saarang-2012 “
IIT MADRAS
18th-22nd February, 2012

Saarang , the annual extravaganza of IIT Chennai was held from 18th-22nd February. The fest, with a budget outlay of Rs.1.6 crore this year, with a 30 per cent increase in sponsorship from last year's, only got bigger, attracting nearly 6,000 visitors. A well-managed event began on the 18th of January.

The sheer stretch of the campus baffled every one of us. The systematic way in conducted in parallel at a number of places, the organisers were successful in maintaining the time schedule they had laid out.

Music Events were the biggest spotlight at Saarang 2012. With the winners of Tarang which the fest was organised made us comfortable in the venue in a very short time. Each one was issued a Saarang Id card which had all the details of events happening in the campus with their timings. In spite of it being a huge event, in terms of the number of events being

, Decibels and Powerchords getting training courses worth INR 25k per head, the stakes had never been this high. Light Music enthusiasts found more avenues for participation with the introduction of LM Acoustics. The Western Music events Acoustyx, Acapella and Powerchords were more competitive than ever, with over INR 2 lakh worth of prizes in cash and kind at stake.

Saarang has created a reputation, over the years, for the diverse and innovative workshops it conducts. Be it Mime, T-Shirt Painting, Bead Jewellery, 3-D Photography or Cryptic Crossword Solving, Saarang offered the participants a chance to try their hand at new pastimes. And of course, the ever-popular dance workshops attracted students looking to shake a leg. The workshops, conducted by experienced professionals drew crowds of interested people.

Thespian Events at Saarang played host to some of the finest actors, with events like Mono-acting, Dramatics and Street Play. Quizzes were extremely competitive and attracted the best and the brightest- from the iconic Lone Wolf Quiz, to quizzes on topics like sports, entertainment(SPENT), business, and even India! At classic speaking events like Extempore, JAM and Elocution, participants dazzle the judges with their wit, spontaneity and oratory skills. Creative Writing and Literary Events such as What's The Good Word, Scrabble and SpellB had their cult following and saw good participation. Dance events like $treet$, Free Style Solo and the biggest of them all, Choreo Night, encouraged the budding dancers in colleges across India. Variety events like 'Treasure Hunt' and 'Queen of Sheeba' ensured that Saarang had something for everyone. Saarang Carnival promised to keep everyone on the streets engaged and entertained with game stalls, street performances, a hang-out lounge and informal events like Antakshari, Wolf, PotPourrie and a Rock Paper Scissors Championship. Adventure Zone, with Paintball, Bungee Trampoline, and a Mechanical Bull catered to those looking for an adrenalin rush.

It is a matter of pride to state that our college was the only one representing Karnataka. The college team, named as Jaycites actively participated in almost all the events and encouraged each other. It was a great moment of happiness when students won accolades for SJCE.
