Students of Department of Management Studies, JSS Science & Technology University, Mysuru from MBA Corporate Finance and General MBA were among 105 young minds selected from Yuva network across the country to participate in the 4th edition of National Leadership camp, which is a National Annual Event of Yi, Pondicherry. They won accolades at the camp and returned home winners in few of them were the only large team from Karnataka.

The camp helped the students to fuel the leadership aspiration and broaden their vision for life. The camp enabled them to learn and experience the challenges in an unfamiliar ground. They were given an opportunity to enhance behavioral skills and qualities of an individual, bringing out latent facets of their personality.

They participated in Green Program, one of the events at the camp in planting the samplings along with Kiran Bedi, Lt.Governor of Pondicherry.
